

The Lectern

The lectern is the place where the Holy Bible is read during services, basically a book stand.

Generally in Anglican churches and cathedrals the lectern is in the form of a brass eagle. The eagle is the 'king of the birds' and 'can fly closest to Heaven' and is worthy of carrying the Holy Bible on its back, whose words bring us closer to the God of heaven and earth.

There is no charge for your visit

Please help us to keep the church open by donating at our contactless points or donation boxes

Thank you

www.stratford-upon-avon.org

Registered charity No. 1128665